Dear Ma'am,

Good day.

I respectfully inform you that I was absent yesterday morning, April 13, 2026, as I needed to obtain my prescribed medicine. The only available schedule given to me was from 9:30 AM to 10:00 AM. After the appointment, I traveled for approximately two to three hours, depending on traffic conditions and transportation availability, which caused a delay in my return to duty that same afternoon.

I've already resumed my duty as an intern assigned at the Office of the Provincial Planning and Development Office (PPDO) upon my arrival.

I humbly ask for your understanding regarding this matter. Thank you very much.

Respectfully yours,

APHRELLE ROSS L. DEL PUERTO
Intern, PPDO

Dear Ma'am,

Good day.

I am writing to respectfully explain my previous absences for which I was unable to formally notify your office.

There were two (2) days of absence on March 24–25 due to the sudden compliance of our capstone requirements, which required our presence and immediate attention.

Another two (2) days of absence were on March 30–31. On March 30, I was unexpectedly and urgently asked to attend my brother's graduation to ensure that my mother would be able to arrive on time, as the event was scheduled early in the day. On March 31, I was unable to resume my duty as I experienced a severe migraine, including intense headache, nausea, and slight dizziness, which made me unfit to report for work.

The remaining absences were due to my medical compliance, including follow-up check-ups, clinical laboratory procedures, and obtaining prescribed medicine from the health center. I was required to visit regularly, either weekly or every two weeks, as the medicine is released in limited quantities to ensure proper intake and avoid wastage.

In line with these absences, I sincerely apologize for not being able to inform your office in advance, whether through email or by submitting a formal letter, to properly explain the reasons, dates, and duration of my absence.

I humbly ask for your understanding regarding this matter. Rest assured that I will be more responsible in communicating any future concerns or absences.

Thank you very much.

Respectfully yours,

APHRELLE ROSS L. DEL PUERTO

Dear Ma'am,

Good day.

I am writing to respectfully explain my previous absences for which I was unable to formally notify your office.

There were two (2) days of absence on March 24–25 due to the urgent compliance of our capstone requirements, which required our presence and immediate attention.

Two (2) additional absences were due to dysmenorrhea, which affected my condition and made me unfit to report for duty.

On March 31, I was requested to attend my cousin's graduation due to an urgent family matter.

On March 30 and April 1, I was unable to report for duty due to temporary financial constraints affecting my transportation.

My remaining absences were due to personal and family matters that required my immediate attention.

In relation to these absences, I sincerely apologize for not being able to inform your office in advance through email or formal letter to properly explain the reasons, dates, and duration of my absences.

I humbly ask for your understanding regarding this matter. Rest assured that I will be more responsible in communicating any future concerns or absences.

Thank you very much.

Respectfully yours,
